OPPORTUNITY FOR FUNDING AVAILABLE TO NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS SERVING PAGE/LAKE POWELL, TUBA CITY, WILLIAMS

FLAGSTAFF—In preparation for their annual competitive grants processes, the Arizona Community Foundation of Flagstaff invites representatives of Tuba City, Page/Lake Powell and Williams area nonprofit organizations, public schools, municipalities and Tribal entities to attend one of three upcoming grant application workshops in Tuba City, Page and Williams. Topics to be discussed at the workshops include application instructions, eligibility requirements, guidelines and overview of the online grants center and application process, and the new Northern Arizona Community Healthcare Grant.

All three workshops are scheduled in February and attendance is highly encouraged for any organization wishing to apply for grants. Registration is highly encouraged and space is limited. You may register using the below links or by contacting Gwen Groth at GGroth@azfoundation.org or 928.526.1956. Please indicate which workshop you would like to attend. The workshops are free and open to all nonprofit representatives, and light snacks will be provided.

Funding proposals should address one or more of the following areas: arts, culture and music, education, community healthcare, social services, health and human services, and youth. The 2018 competitive grants process will begin Monday, March 5, with final applications due no later than 4:00 p.m. on Monday, March 26. Additional information about the grants process is available at www.azfoundation.org/grants.

Local staff are available to answer questions and assist nonprofit organizations during the application process. For more information, contact Gwen Groth, Regional Philanthropic Coordinator for ACF of Flagstaff, at 928.526.1956 or GGroth@azfoundation.org.

The Page/Lake Powell, Tuba City and Greater Williams Community Funds are component funds of the Arizona Community Foundation of Flagstaff, established to serve organizations in these communities. Community funds are endowments, permanent funds in which the principal is invested and a portion of the returns used to award grants and scholarships with the guidance of a steering committee composed of local leaders. Individuals, families and businesses can give to community funds to grow them and increase their grantmaking capacity. To learn more about the community funds supporting Page/Lake Powell, Tuba City and Williams, visit www.azfoundation.org/Flagstaff and click "Community Funds."

Founded in 1987, the Arizona Community Foundation of Flagstaff is a permanent philanthropic endowment for the benefit of communities in Flagstaff and Northern Arizona. This family of charitable funds is guided by a local Board of Advisors and benefits from cost-efficient, centralized professional services provided by the Arizona Community Foundation.

Founded in 1978, the Arizona Community Foundation is a statewide philanthropy with regional offices serving communities across Arizona. Last year, ACF and its affiliates awarded more than $55 million in grants and scholarship funding to some 4,500 nonprofit organizations, schools and government agencies. More information is available at www.azfoundation.org.
